EVER CACIEDO	}

C.A. 4:08-cv-3513

OPINION & ORDER

Pending before the Court are Defendant Ever Caciado's ("Caciado") Motion to Vacate under 28 USC § 2255 (Doc. 14) and the Government's Motion to Deny Relief (Doc. 21). Also before the Court is Magistrate Judge Stacy's Memorandum and Recommendation (Doc. 29), denying relief, and Caciado's Objections thereto (Doc. 31).

Caciado's conviction became final on June 3, 1999. His § 2255 appeal was mailed on November 24, 2008. Under § 2255(f)(1), Caciado had one year within which to bring his § 2255 motion. Usually the statute of limitations begins to run from the date of conviction. Caciado argues that the statute of limitations period did not begin to run until August 12, 2008, the date when, as per § 2255(f)(4), he claims "facts supporting the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence." On that date Caciado alleges he first received a copy of the Judgment and Order setting supervised release which this Court revoked. Caciado, however, admits that he was apprised of the terms of the Judgment and Order setting supervised release. In fact, the argument on the merits he attempts to make is that he believed, that due to his return to the United States after his deportation at the behest of the Federal Bureau of Investigations to serve as a confidential informant, he was no longer under supervised release. Thus the Judgment and Order setting supervised release prior to these circumstances is not a factual predicate to his claim on the merits and thus, is not a “fact supporting the claim” under § 2255(f)(4). Accordingly, the Court finds Magistrate Judge Stacy’s conclusion that the claim is time-barred to be correct, and adopts the Memorandum and Recommendation.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that Caciedo’s Motion to Vacate (Doc. 14) is DENIED and the Government’s Motion to Deny Relief (Doc. 21) is GRANTED.

SIGNED at Houston, Texas, this 6th day of August, 2009.
